UberSLEIGH DELIVERS TOYS TO CHILDREN OF THE MARJAREE MASON CENTER

UberSLEIGH is landing in Fresno, delivering holiday cheer and gifts to children affected by domestic violence of the Marjaree Mason Center.

Story: This holiday season, Uber has teamed up with the Marjaree Mason Center (MMC) to collect new and unwrapped toys on-demand this Thursday, December 17.

From 11am-2pm on Thursday, December 17, request SLEIGH on your Uber app to donate new, unwrapped toys to MMC. An Uber car will roll up to your home or office to collect your unwrapped toys at no charge. Please be ready to meet the SLEIGH curbside!

“Marjaree Mason Center sees first-hand the effects that domestic violence has on children. Those kids exposed to abuse at a young age are more likely to become victims or abusers as adults. This holiday season, in serving about 300 families, your much-needed toys that will graciously be collected and delivered by Uber drivers will bring light and happiness to these children during a dark time in their lives,” said Marjaree Mason Center’s Executive Director, Genelle Taylor Kumpe.

While Uber deliveries are taking place at MMC, Genelle Taylor Kumpe (Executive Director of MMC) will be available for media interviews upon request.

Date/Time: From 11am-2pm on Thursday, December 17, 2015

Location: All UberSLEIGH toy donations will be dropped off at MMC’s Administration Office (1600 M Street, Fresno, CA 93721).
